Lobay Acclaimed By Social Credit Party

By H. THOMPSON

LAC LA BICHE — The hottest contested nomination campaign ever staged in these parts wound up in a victory for Harry Lobay, present member of the Government, at the Veterans' Hall on May 19, at Lac la Biche.

With the largest number of delegates ever to assemble in any constituency meeting and believed to be a record for the Province for rural districts, one hundred and sixty-five accredited delegates declared by a substantial majority their endorsement for a continuation of their present member's work in their behalf.

Four names appeared on the nomination lists but two were withdrawn before the balloting took place.

Harry Lobay, hardware merchant at Lac la Biche, and Elmer Plamondon, business man from the Hamlet of Plamondon, were the only two contestants. The first balloting in this two-way contest declared Harry Lobay winner by a very substantial majority. The meeting then voted to make the choice unanimous.

The Hon. Lucien Maynard was given the chair by a show of hands and conducted the meeting with his usual considered precision. Every opportunity was given for discussion but the delegates appeared to have left discussion outdoors and were determined to register their decisions without preliminary delay. The entire business after the candidates were nominated took less than an hour and included time for speeches by the two remaining nominees.

Presentation of the two candidates by Mr. Weir, Constituency President, gave Mr. Lobay the first chance to present his case to the delegates, as his name preceded that of his opponent, Elmer Plamondon, on the nomination lists.

Mr. Lobay's address contained much material that confounded opposition among the delegates. The fluency of his speech, self confidence in his explanations for his Constituency stewardship, grasp of situations pertaining to the Government's policies and understanding of the difficulties and future needs of his constituents was revealing. Mr. Lobay has come a long way since his early maiden speech which referred to: "That school of thought of something for nothing." A needling expression oft used in the old days and applied exclusively to Social Crediters "funny money days." Opposition parties will find in Mr. Lobay formidable difficulties, if support of this convention is any criterion of final election results.

Mr. Elmer Plamondon's appeal to the delegates was brief and may have affected the final result. Train service from McMurray and Waterways completely shut out any representation from the area, as the railway is the only link with the large area that is contained in the new Lac la Biche Constituency.

Mr. and Mrs. Damase Bouvier, Mr. and Mrs. Gerome Johnson visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Armond Bouvier over the week-end.

Mr. A. Bowman has moved into the St. Jean home.

Mr. R. E. Piquette attended the Inglis Co. convention in Edmonton.

Mr. Phil Lemay is now working in the St. Paul district.

June appears to be the month for brides around here.

DEPT. AGRICULTURE REFUSES TO GRANT BULL LICENSING TO M.D.

MEANOOK — Reporting to the March meeting of the Agriculture Service Board of the Municipal District of Athabasca, Councillor Breckenridge, a member of the board, gave his report on a committee's trip to Edmonton.

The Agricultural Board had been anxious to have a system of licensing breeding bulls to ensure the use of only pure bred animals. However, Mr. Breckenridge reported the committee got no satisfaction from the Department of Agriculture on the licensing and registering of pure bred bulls in the municipal district. The department heads stated they would rather each cattle breeding association did the licensing, instead of the department doing it.

Opening

The meeting was called to order by the secretary at 3:50 p.m. in the Provincial Building, Athabasca.

Members present: Godel, Olson, Breckenridge, Hoglund, Supervisor Arnfelt and Secretary Ward. Member Breckenridge was elected as chairman of the service board by acclamation.

Parish Picnic Outstanding Success

PLAMONDON—The Annual St. Isadore's Parish picnic was an outstanding success.

Even with cloudy skies and forecast of showers, this did not dim the enthusiastic crowds who gathered at the Parish picnic here on June 1st. One of the largest picnics Plamondon has had in several years took place here.

The ball games were the outstanding events for young and old. The outstanding games of the day were the girls' teams, Plamondon vs. Lac la Biche, and the Wandering River and Lac la Biche men's teams surely played a wonderful final game.

The pony rides and the raffle of the pony provided a great deal of pleasure for the younger members of the family.

Miss Reta Gauthier was crowned queen of the day at the end of the show. All the girls are to be congratulated on the way they worked, but Reta sold the most tickets, therefore was well deserving of the honor.

The pony was won by Mr. Louis Ulliach.

The day came to a close with a very fine display of fireworks set off at the ball park.

Rev. Fr. Ricard sincerely wishes to thank all those who had charge of the arrangements, all who helped in any way, either by donations or work, and to all visitors and ball teams who took part in the event.

Mr. and Mrs. Damase Bouvier, Mr. and Mrs. Gerome Johnson visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Armond Bouvier over the week-end.

Mr. A. Bowman has moved into the St. Jean home.

Mr. R. E. Piquette attended the Inglis Co. convention in Edmonton.

Mr. Phil Lemay is now working in the St. Paul district.

June appears to be the month for brides around here.

1952, were read to the board by the secretary.

Moved by Member Olson that the minutes of the previous regular meeting of March 1st, 1952, be adopted as read. Carried.

Cattle

Member Godel stated that from the cattle census taken, it showed there were 640 farms in the municipal district and 273 farms with an average of 12 to 5 head each.

Toad Flax Advised

Moved by Member Breckenridge that Supervisor Arnfelt advertise in the movie theatres in the municipal district regarding toad flax. Carried.

The supervisor was instructed to check up on all farmers reported to have toad flax, and report to the board.

Bangs Vaccination

Member Godel stated that Bangs vaccination for heifer calves would start as soon as possible; just as soon as the roads were passable.

Meetings On Cattle Diseases

Moved by Member Godel that the board sponsor three public meetings on cattle diseases, with Dr. Ballantyne as the chief speaker, around June 1st to 15th. Carried.

Highway Seeded

It was reported to the board that the sides of the new highway between Clyde and Perryvale will be seeded down to grass this summer.

Craigend Activities

The Craigend Picnic was a big success. Four games of softball were played by Briereville, Craigend Juniors, Normandeau and Craigend Seniors. Briereville won first prize and Craigend Seniors second.

Mr. Dan Wowk has exchanged his old blue Dodge for a new gray one.

The girls of the Craigend Culture Girls' Garden Club and their leader attended the rally in Dr. Swift's School in Lac la Biche on May 31. Demonstration on "Carrots" was made by Miss Denise Gervais and Evelyn Kupchanko, and "How to Prepare a Salad" by Ann Burdeck and Tillie Pan-chuk. The girls enjoyed every bit of the program, including the delicious lunch served by the Lac la Biche W.I.

Mr. Plamer was home for a couple of days. He brought his son, who had been in an Edmonton hospital, home.

A surprise party was held on May 31 for Mr. and Mrs. S. Tkachuk. They recently moved into their new house.

REPORT ON CHURCH CONFERENCE

LETHBRIDGE—The 28th meeting of the Alberta Conference of the United Church of Canada was held in Southminster United Church, Lethbridge. This annual conference was attended by ministers and lay delegates from United Churches all over the province. In addition there were representatives of various charity organizations. The primary purpose of the seven-day conference was to settle the various business matters of the church, and to consider the state of the church in the life of the nation. The mission work of the church both at home and abroad was also reviewed and plans made for advancement.

Rev. Norman W. Whitmore of First United Church, Lethbridge, was the president of the conference with Rev. C. Dwight Powell of Nanton as secretary. Among the special speakers at the conference were Rev. K. J. Beaton, Rev. J. R. Leng, both of Toronto; Judge N. Buchanan of Edmonton, Senator Buchanan of Lethbridge, and Rev. Murdoch MacKinnon of Edmonton.

It was noted that a new mission field in the Copper Belt of Africa was being opened up by the church. It was also reported that thirty new missionaries were leaving for Japan, and the church was urged to support the mission work of the church, both in men and material resources. It was also stressed that single men were needed to volunteer for mission work in Korea.

The report of the United Church Publishing House (Rhyason Press) reported that its book publishing program had won wide recognition in Canada both for fiction and non-fiction. They also reported that through their publication of Educational Text Books they had become a leader in this field in Canada. The Canada books of Prose and Verse were especially mentioned.

Reports of Evangelism and social service noted particularly the great harm being done to modern Canadian culture through increased alcoholism. In this report church hospitals and social service institutions came under special study.

Five clergymen were ordained to the work of the church at this conference at a special service. Retiring ministers were specially honored.

Dr. G. Harrison Vilette was elected president of the Alberta Conference of the United Church of Canada for the coming year. The invitation of the congregation of Robertson United Church in Edmonton to be hosts for the 1953 Conference was gratefully accepted. Rev. D. Greenough was the delegate from the Lac la Biche church, and commented favorably on the hospitality extended to the 300 official delegates and the many visitors, by the people of Lethbridge.

Perfection

A man who had been a bachelor most of his life finally married and settled down. One day he met a friend who had known him in the old days and the friend asked him what he thought of married life.

"Well," replied the benedict. "I married the girl of my dreams and she was worth waiting for. She still is as beautiful to me as the day that I met her. Her hands are always white and soft. Her hair is never untidy and her clothes are always in the very latest style."

"So you don't regret getting up your single life and getting married?" said the friend.

"No," was the reply, "but I can tell you one thing—I'm getting pretty tired of eating in restaurants."

Not Enough Evidence

The owner of a tavern was prosecuted for selling a bottle of whisky after the closing hour, a bottle similar to that sold was produced in the courtroom as evidence. After the jury had heard the evidence and had retired to deliberate the foreman returned to the courtroom.

"Your Honor," he said to the judge, "the jury are quite satisfied as to the sale of the bottle, but they are not sure of its contents. May they have that bottle to satisfy themselves?"

"Certainly," declared the judge. After a brief period the jury filed back into the box again.

"Well, gentlemen, have you reached a decision?" asked the judge.

"There's no case, Your Honor," replied the foreman. "There wasn't enough evidence to go around."

Safety First

"Some of you pedestrians walk as if you owned the streets."

"Some of you motorists drive around just as if you owned your cars."

I, of course, started for the granary and met the little girl running very fast. Breathlessly, she said: "Oh, Grandma, come quick, 'Squeekie Boy's been bit by a stung.'" ### Father's Day 1952

Forty-two years ago Mrs. John Bruce Dodd was the driving force in starting Americans to celebrate Father's Day. Since 1910 the third Sunday in June has been observed as Father's Day, although it is not usually declared a legal holiday. This year Father's Day comes on the 15th of June.

Each year on Father's Day, emphasis is placed on a closer father-child relation as a means of building a better world. In the average family in Edmonton or any other community in Canada the father is away from the home during the major portion of the day. Children do not have an opportunity to become as well acquainted with their father as they do with their mother.

All of us realize how important it is to the proper development of a child to have the sympathetic guidance of "Dad." Too often fathers, weighted down with the responsibility of making a living, fail to devote enough of those precious moments to the youngsters.

The important role that a father plays in moulding the character of his children has been recognized through the ages. Aristotle wrote, "From good parents comes a good son."

"One father is more than a hundred schoolmasters."—George Herbert.

"Character is largely caught, and the father and the home should be the great sources of character infection."—Frank H. Chaley.

End of Newspaper Monopoly in Sight?

It seems as if Edmonton's daily newspaper monopoly is not going to last forever. At present rumors are current of a large Toronto daily having looked over the field with a view to publishing a second daily in this city. What truth there is in the report is not clear yet, but it is reported that a large business block in the centre of the city has been purchased by the Toronto firm.

Developments have not gone beyond this stage yet, but it is not likely that a large newspaper firm has bought a business block in the city for warehouse purposes. There has been a strong feeling in the public mind that a city of 165,000 should not be dependent on a single medium of news service in the daily field. This feeling is growing as time passes and the city of Edmonton spreads out further and further under the pressure of rapidly growing population.

One of the 165,000 Edmonton people who did not buy out the old Edmonton Bulletin, according to his own statement, is Walter MacDonald, Publisher of the Journal. Mr. MacDonald has just come home from a number of meetings in Toronto. Walter probably knows more about the newspaper situation than anyone else but, like the daisies, he won't tell.

Let Them Pick Their Own Wives

(From the Calgary Albertan)

The defence department in Ottawa should do something about the bigotry and prejudice that apparently prevail in the Canadian army headquarters in Japan.

A young Alberta man, the first from these parts to enlist for the Korean war, married a fine, upstanding Japanese girl, with the approval of his family. But it seems the army authorities won't recognize the marriage and the girl cannot come to Canada. So, although he was due for repatriation a long while ago and has a most distinguished military record, he is still there. He won't leave his wife.

Canadian soldiers are mature enough to pick their own wives. If this girl is good enough for the man and his family and if he is good enough for her and her family, her race or color should be of no concern to the Canadian army. Where's the freedom these fellows are supposed to be fighting for?

Mother Shipton's Poem

By T. W. PUE

Over 200 years ago, a woman reputed to be a witch, wrote a poem which, with her self-acclaimed powers of prophecy, she set out to foretell the future, and specifically mentioned one date—1936.

She said in her poem, written over two centuries ago, that "then shall mighty wars be planned and fire and sword shall sweep the land." This has since been only too true.

T. W. Pue

Think of the annihilation of Poland, the invasion of Finland, with its white-robed ski troops in the forests, the invasion of Norway, with troops hidden in mountain forests when you read about people who "flee to the mountains and the dens, the bog and forest and wild fens."

The reader might also recall the utterances by world statesmen on war aims and reconstruction of society after the war as he reaches the end of the poem where Mother Shipton concludes with "old worlds shall die and new be born."

MOTHER SHIPTON'S POEM

A carriage without a horse shall go,
Disaster fill the world with woe.
In London Primrose Hill shall be;
Its centre hold a Bishops See.
Around the world men's thoughts shall fly
Quick as the twinkling of an eye.
And waters shall great wonders do—
How strange, and yet it shall come true;
Thro' Tow'ring hills proud men shall ride
No horse nor ass move by his side.
Beneath the water men shall walk;
Shall ride, shall sleep, shall even talk;
And in the air men shall be seen,
In white, in black, as well as green.

A great man then shall come and go
For prophesy declares it so.
In water iron then shall float
As easy as a wooden boat;
Gold shall be found in stream or stone,
In land that is as yet unknown.
Water and fire shall wonder do.
And England shall admit a Jew,
The Jew that once was held in scorn.
A home of glass, shall come to pass
In England—but alas, alas!
A war shall follow with the work
Where dwells the pagan and the Turk.

Tht States will lock in fiercest strife
And seek to take each other's life:
When north shall thus divide the south
The eagle build in lion's mouth.
Then tax and blood and cruel war
Shall come to every humble door.
Three times shall lovely, sunny France,
Be led to play a bloody dance,
Before the people shall be free.
Three tyrant rulers shall she see;
Three rulers, in succession, be—
Each sprung from different dynasty.

Then, when the fiercest fight is done,
England and France shall be one.
The British olive then shall twine
In marriage with the German vine.
Men walk beneath and over streams—
All England's sons shall plow the land
Shall oft be seen with book in hand.
The poor shall now most wisdom know,
And water, wind where corn doth grow,
Great houses stand with far-flung vale,
All covered o'er with snow and hail.

And now a word in uncouth rhyme
Of what shall be in future time;
For, in those wondrous far off days,
The women shall adopt a craze
To dress like men and trousers wear,
And cut off all their locks of hair.
They'll ride astride with brazen brow,
As witches do on broomsticks now.
Then love shall die and marriage cease.
And nations wane as babes decrease.
And wives shall fondle cats and dogs
And men live much the same as hogs.

In nineteen hundred and thirty-six,
Build houses light with straw and sticks.
For then shall mighty wars be planned,
And fire and sword shall sweep the land.
But those who live the century through
In fear and trembling this shall do.
Flee to the mountains and the dens,
To bog and forest and wild fens—
For storms shall rage and oceans roar
When Gabriel stands on sea and shore;
And when he blows his wondrous horn,
Old worlds shall die and new be born.

JUNE 1952 LIVESTOCK SURVEY

How many livestock are there in Canada? How many of these are dairy and how many are beef animals? What is the acreage seeded to grains in Canada in 1952? How much of this acreage is seeded to wheat and to feed grains? These and a host of other questions can best be answered by asking the farmers of Canada.

Therefore, each year at this time, the Bureau of Statistics in co-operation with the provinces distribute questionnaires to farmers throughout Canada so that every farmer may have the chance to supply information about acreage and livestock on his own farm.

The June crops and livestock survey is a voluntary one. Many farmers supply information every year and this year again all farmers are urged to co-operate in the survey. The object is to get a large number of completed reports back to the statistical offices as soon after June 1 as possible.

The individual reports will then be grouped together and estimates of acreages and livestock numbers will be made for each province across Canada. The 1952 estimates will be related to the census figures of June 1, 1951 and it will be important to know what changes have occurred since then.

The statistics obtained from the June Survey are an essential part of agricultural statistics in Canada. They form the base for the crop production estimates later on in the year and the livestock numbers are used to determine meat consumption in Canada and supplies available for export. Government bodies, farm organizations, industry and international organizations such as the Food and Agriculture Organization use the figures extensively.

All schedules returned by farmers are kept strictly confidential. The individual forms are seen only by employees in federal and provincial statistical offices.

Voice of the People

WHEN CHILDREN SUFFER WHY TEACH?

I say to the judges who try cases such as that recent one in New York, where a savage beast of a mother beat her child severely with an Army belt as her husband just stood beside her: there is only one way to do justice to such scoundrels. Tie up such so-called mothers and fathers and have them beaten in the same way, repeatedly, until they both are unconscious or dead. A lash for a lash, judge!

JAKE YABLONSKI.

SEES US SKIDDING

The social problem group, the unemployables and ne'er-do-wells, are begetting a large percentage of our next generation—more than ever before, since previous generations were not coddled by government housing projects, unemployment compensation, baby bonuses, old-age pensions, relief, etc. The situation is all the more insidious because it occurs so slowly. For this trend to show appreciably might take a century. When will we reverse this trend—or shall we retrograde to a nation of morons?

G. C. M.

THANKS FROM LIONS

We wish to express our thanks and appreciation for the publicity and co-operation given by you during the past season, in reporting and publicizing the games played by the Morinville Lions' Juvenile Hockey team, which was successful in winning the Northern Alberta Juvenile "B" championship.

Your interest and assistance are very much appreciated.

A. REID, Secretary.
Morinville, Alta.

FOR CRIPPLED CHILDREN

The Associated Canadian Travellers have concluded another successful season of Search for Talent.

The ready response of Northern and Central Alberta weeklies to accepting and publishing news releases of the activities in connection with Search for Talent and the ACT Northern Alberta Crippled Children's Fund, has been a major factor in assuring the success of our public service in the interests of needy crippled children.

Consequently, more needy children will be healthier and happier due to your interest and co-operation.

T. A. SHANDRO.
Secretary-Treasurer,
Edmonton ACT.

Everybody wants short hours, high pay, quick promotions, easy work and holidays with pay. If you are looking for a job like that, remember that so is everybody else. If you find such a job, you'll be lucky. If you find two, let us know about the other one.

Teaching as a career gives one some degree of each of these desired job qualities. The actual working hours are short—not over 35 per week. Additional work is always self-controlled in the sense that you can work the assignments after 4 o'clock or after supper—you have a choice. The pay is not as high to start as is that of some other jobs, but it keeps rising with experience. For a young person considering a life work, that future look is often neglected and is very important. Your parents will tell you how short four or five years between the ages of 20 and 25 look from their present age. To the person of 19 it seems like all of time!

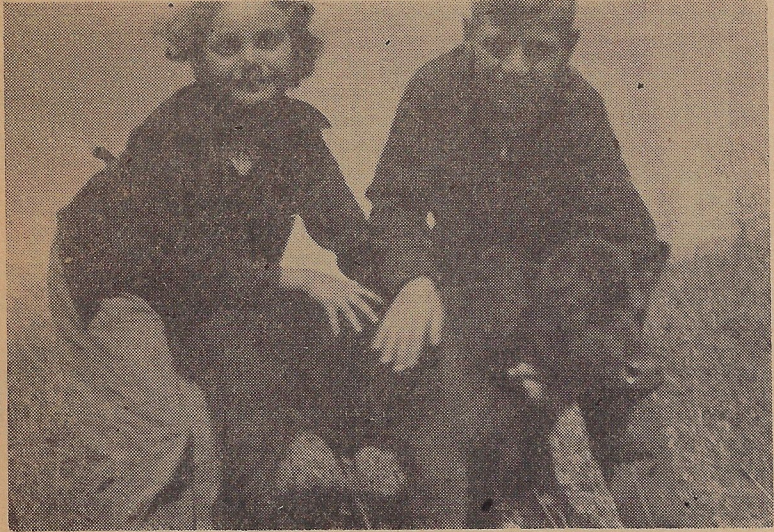

As anyone knows, pay and hours aren't everything about a job. Do you like to be your own boss? From 9 o'clock until 4 every day, a classroom teacher is. She decides what to do, how to do it and when to do it. There isn't everybody peering down her neck, and saying: "Now do this," or "Just stop that work you are doing and come over here." Besides being her own boss a teacher learns how to work with people, especially with children. The training teachers get is the best of training for motherhood. The harried parent who wonders what to do next often envies the teacher who can deal with 30 or 40 of these human dynamos. Any man is smart to choose a girl with such training for his wife.

So, why teach? Because you serve society as a teacher, because twenty years from now your influence on young lives will pay off, because it is work which requires initiative and intelligence. If you care only for a big starting pay cheque, with little future prospects, with risky and itinerant work, don't look at teaching as a job. But if you would like to improve yourself as a person and as a possible parent, if you would like to leave your mark on the world, indelibly printed in the lives of young people, then choose teaching as a career.

DR. STANLEY CLARKE.

Statisticians, reporting that sport fishing is big business in Canada, estimate it is worth $80,000,000 annually.

WITH THE ADVENT of spring, the farm of David Ball, "Silver Bell Ranch," in the Woodbend district, is the home of several new-born Registered Polled Shorthorn calves. Running at large with the cows, the new calves are quite untamed, but Lynn Ball and her brother Daniel are doing their best to control the movements of this young bull calf. The David Balls live five miles south and one mile east of Winterburn Store in the Municipal District of Stony Plain.

New Talent Star To Be Born At Devon Oil Show

DEVON—When an oil well is found in a new field, it is termed a strike or discovery. Now, the oil industry in Alberta, through the Devon Oil Show Association, is about to make a different kind of discovery. At the Oil Show being held in Devon July 3, 4 and 5, a new star in the entertainment world will be born. This will take place through the Talent Show to be held nightly with Stan Francis. of "Share the Wealth" fame as Master of Ceremonies.

The presentation, to be known as the "Fame and Fortune Show", will be held in Devon's Flare Pit, an amphitheatre under the stars, which seats 6,000 people.

Twenty-five contestants will compete in the three nights with the finalists from each night competing in the last half of the program Saturday for the grand award. The grand prize will be a week's all-expense trip for two to New York, with an opportunity to audition for some well-known radio show. Prizes will be given each night as well. Because of the nature of this contest, only single or duet acts which would have radio appeal are acceptable, such as vocal, instrumental, impersonations, etc. As only 25 contestants can appear, the acts will have to be screened in advance by Stan Francis, who will be in Devon well in advance of the show dates. This is not the usual type of amateur or popularity contests, as only the very best talent that is possible to find will take part, and a panel of adjudicators will decide the winners.

Talented persons wishing to appear should contact Mr. B. D. Stover, Secretary, Devon Oil Show Association, Devon, Alberta, immediately by phone, collect, or letter.

This, plus an audience participation feature, is the entertainment highlight of the Devon Oil Show. On display in the Oil exhibits will be machinery used in

How to secure a crop of polled calves from a herd of horned, commercial cattle has been solved by David Ball, Registered Polled Shorthorn Breeder of the Woodbend district.

Having bred his purebred bull "Alpine Cruiser" (an import from Lexington, Missouri), to regular horned cattle on his ranch, Mr. Ball has been gratified with his crop of "dehorned" calves.

Only one out of each four calves born this spring on the Ball's Silver Bell ranch is of the "horned" variety.

Mr. Ball recommends this cross-breeding method to farmers who wish to switch from the horned to the polled variety of cattle without making an expensive change-over of breeds.

In addition to "Alpine Cruiser," the sire of the herd, Mr. Ball has five Registered Polled Shorthorn cows. These were imported from North Dakota.

Mr. Ball expects to be able to offer for sale this fall a few young Registered Shorthorn bull calves to Alberta farmers desirous of improving their commercial herd by cross-breeding.

A SURE SIGN

From the Calgary Albertan
Sure proof that there'll be a provincial election in Alberta this year is cited by the Lethbridge Herald. The department of economic affairs has just published a book, at the taxpayers' expense, entitled "The Alberta Story, An Authentic Report on Alberta's Progress, 1935-1952." This will obviously be used in the election campaign.

As the Lethbridge paper points out, the new Alberta was born in 1935. Similarly everything good in Russia is based on the 1917 revolution, and "the Saskatchewan story" started in 1944.

every phase of the oil industry. Thursday, Friday and Saturday, July 3, 4 and 5, will provide tourists with an educational and entertaining visit to Alberta's largest oil field, and Canada's Model Oil Town, Devon, Alberta.

You Having Cow Trouble?

URBANA, Ill.—If you have a cow that's too short for milking by machine, just stand her on a plank. This suggestion comes from William Hopkins. He's Dairy Herd Improvement Association tester in McDonough County. He said that when a cow's udders hang low, it causes the suction hoses to kink so that the milker won't work.

LETTERS TO LOUISA

Dear Louisa:

My husband is a salesman and is with people practically all day long, so that when he comes home he is perfectly satisfied to eat his dinner, listen to the radio, read and go to bed.

I have plenty of time to read and listen to the radio during the day after I finish my housework, so I am ready in the evening to go to the movies or somewhere else.

Do you think it right for me to insist on his going out when I know he would rather stay home or should I put up with being bored to death half of the time?

A.G.

Answer:

It seems to me that you and your husband could compromise on this problem. Why don't you go to the movies in the afternoon and join a club that meets during the day. Then tell your husband that if he will give you one or two evenings during the week, you will let him rest in peace for the remainder of the week. Plan these evenings, in advance, and for times you think he will enjoy them most.

There are a great many women who would be delighted to have a husband, who was satisfied to stay home with them every evening instead of hunting outside excitement and, as your husband is contacting people all day, one can understand how relieved he is to get away from them for a while. You might suggest to him, however, that social contacts are a help to most salesmen and this may influence him to be more sociable.

LOUISA.

Award New Contracts On
$3,000,000 Outlay

New road contracts amounting to $3,000,000 have been awarded by the Alberta highways department, forming part of its $17,500,000 main road construction program for this year.

Estimated to cost $321,925, grading and other work will be done on a 16-mile strip from Delia to Hanna, in southern Alberta.

Grading and other work on 23 miles of the northern road between Dixonville and North Star at a cost of $276,815 also will be undertaken immediately.

The program also includes building of a stabilized gravel base roadway east of Beiseker to Drumheller, at an estimated cost of $979,651.

A contract for $473,662 on the construction of a 1,000-foot reinforced concrete girder bridge over the South Saskatchewan river at Medicine Hat also has been awarded.

Miss Eva Carbol Is Bride At Metropolitan United Church

EDMONTON — Two district families were united in a lovely bridal recently at Metropolitan United Church when Miss Eva Amelia Carbol pledged vows of marriage with Mr. Charles Raymond Scheltens.

Profusions of gladioli and fern graced the altar for the double-ring ceremony in which the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Carbol of Amisk became the bride of the son of Mrs. C. C. Scheltens and the late Mr. Scheltens of Lac la Biche.

Mr. Carbol gave his daughter in marriage at rites performed by Rev. Reid Vipond.

For the occasion, the bride wore a navy London tailored suit with a white hat and matching accessories. Sweetheart roses and stephanotis formed her corsage.

Miss Verna Kennedy attended the bride wearing a navy dress-maker suit. Her hat and accessories were coral and she wore gardenias en corsage.

Best man was Mr. Kenneth Anguist.

Prior to the ceremony Miss Violet Cumming sang "The Lord's Prayer" and while the register was being signed she sang "O Day Of Golden Promise," accompanied by Mr. Peter Delicate.
